Dear Delegates,

Thanks for the overwhelming response to the FIMMDA-PDAI Annual Conference to be held at Sydney during Apr 13-16, 2017. We have about 230 delegates who registered with us (including speakers/guests etc)

We look forward to an intellectual and rewarding Conference and a happy and enjoyable stay to all of you.

We request you to take few minutes to read the important instructions that we may send you for a safe and happy stay at Sydney.

- We hope you all did your air ticketing. Please ensure that you do your Overseas insurance for travel as well as Stay for sufficient amount.
- Please let us know your flight details.
- As Australian Tourist Visa takes 15 working days the deadline to receive all Visa documents at Thomas Cook office would be 15th March, post which they won't be able to assist you on visas.
- If you are doing VISA on your own/your own travel agent ensure to submit all required papers well in advance so that you may receive your visas in time for the travel. Please ensure to see that you mention your travel back period and visa requirement period correctly.
- Cases where delegates processing his / her tickets & visa on their own, Individual delegate may please share their ticket , visa & passport copy ( front & back ) with TCIL as they need to send the same to hotel well in advance to ensure smooth check ins.
- If you are bringing your spouse/or anyone else with you, please ensure that you register them along with your registration and if you have not done it as yet, please register immediately as the no. of spouse seats at a special discounted price are limited and that price is not guaranteed for all spouses.

We shall come back with more instructions as we go along.

Regards
